

TWENTY-FIRST YEAR. NUMBER 154

POLITICS IN OGDEN

The Citizens Nominate a Municipal Ticket.

THE LIBERALS ARE WORRIED

Over it—The Idaho Legislature—Many Union Pacific Changes Contemplated—Death of Attorney McGowan, of Halley.

OGDEN, Jan. 28.—Special telegram to THE HERALD.—To-night at 6 o'clock a committee composed principally of members of the city council met in the federal court room for the purpose of fixing up a city ticket. After a little discussion the following was arranged:

Mayor, David Evans; recorder, James C. Smith; treasurer, W. V. Heffrich; marshal, John W. Metcalf. They then went to county court house at 8 o'clock and asked the members of the Citizens convention, which was in session, to ratify and accept their ticket.

The citizens did not feel inclined that way, and were not in sympathy with such a movement, so they nominated the following ticket:

Mayor, J. M. Langsdorf; recorder, J. S. Curlew; assessor and collector, E. T. Hulmick; treasurer, J. H. Jennings; marshal, George W. Hock.

The following nominations from each ward were ratified by the convention: First ward—Councilmen, E. E. Dean and W. W. Funge; justice of the peace, B. T. Jones.

Second ward—Councilmen, H. C. Hartog and Frank Coburn; justice of the peace, J. Williamson.

Third ward—Councilmen, Thomas D. Dee and W. H. Shurtliff; justice of the peace, Levy Billings.

Fourth ward—Councilmen, John Hust and W. W. Stone; justice of the peace, Frank C. Scott.

Fifth ward—Councilmen, Frank J. Cannon and John Calvert; justice of the peace, C. B. Pash. The labor union and railroad men will support the ticket. The Liberals are badly worried over it.

The Idaho Legislature.
BOISE CITY, Jan. 28.—[Special to THE HERALD.]—The penitentiary bill has occupied a great deal of the time of the legislature and the two houses cannot agree.

The senate made a great many amendments. The house concurred in a majority of them, when it was the time sent to the senate. That body failing to concur in the house amendments in full a committee of conference was called for.

The committee consists of Senators Branstetter, Smith and Dempsey, and Representatives Price, Emery and Jones.

A bill regulating the practice of medicine was introduced in the house to-day.

This afternoon was taken up in the house in committee of the whole on a bill concerning revenue and providing for certain personal exemptions. The first section provides that all mortgages, credits, and all moneys, or their representatives or substitutes, acting as mediums of exchange whether circulating or on deposit, shall be exempt from taxation. The debate was carried on with much enthusiasm over an amendment to omit money. It was lost by a vote of 16 to 12.

The governor has approved an act for a board of pardons and defining the duties thereof, which fulfills the requirements of the constitution.

Many Union Pacific Changes Coming.
OMAHA, Jan. 28.—[Special telegram to THE HERALD.]—Fred Merchenberg was today appointed assistant superintendent of machinery, to fill the vacancy caused by the resignation of Harvey Middleton. The headquarters will remain at Cheyenne. It is asserted in railroad circles that numerous changes in officials are contemplated.

Representative Witter, of Montana. Dying.
HELENA, Mont., Jan. 28.—[Special telegram to THE HERALD.]—Representative A. C. Witter, of Sevierhead county, is at home in Helena at the point of death. Attending physicians have lost all hope. He was speaker of the Republican house of representatives last session and this session. His death will make the house a tie when the two parties unite to-day and organize.

Death of A. J. McGowan, of Halley.
BILLEVUE, Ida., Jan. 28.—[Special telegram to THE HERALD.]—A. J. McGowan, the well known Halley lawyer, died in that town last evening. He was well known all over the territory as a member of the law firm of Kingsbury & McGowan. He was the Republican candidate at the last election for district judge. He has lived in Wood River since early days. He was vice-president of the Halley National bank. He had been sick but a short time.

The Montana Legislature Compromises.
HELENA, Mont., Jan. 28.—After twenty-four days of double-headed legislature, the Democrats and Republicans have agreed on a plan of compromise. The rival houses are to meet as one body, the Republicans getting 28 and the Democrats 27. The Democrats are to have the speaker, subordinate officers and central committee. The compromise was drawn up by senators of both parties and will be signed to-morrow.

Speaker Witter, of the Republican house, is dying of pneumonia. His wife died of consumption this morning.

Speaker Courley, of the Democratic house, is also very ill of pneumonia.

Ex-Marshall Campbell's Body Found.
CHICAGO, Jan. 28.—The body of B. H. Campbell, ex-United States marshal for this district, who mysteriously disappeared two months ago, was found in the river near Rush street bridge this morning. It was much swollen and disfigured, but the features were still recognizable.

International Press Club.
PITTSBURGH, Pa., Jan. 28.—In the International Press Club convention, the committee reported on the plans on the scope of the reported constitution and by-laws, which were adopted. The association will hereafter be known as the International League of Press Clubs. Its objects are to bring into closer and friendly relations the press clubs of the world, and to promote a more fraternal and helpful feeling among the members.

Judge Wardner Indicted for Murder.
CHATTANOOGA, Tenn., Jan. 28.—The grand jury has an indictment for murder in the first degree against Judge Wardner for killing Banker Fugate.

Report from the Stock Feeding District.
KANSAS CITY, Jan. 28.—The Live Stock inspector of this city has special reports from

NO DISCRIMINATION

An Important Inter-State Commerce Decision.

GENERAL MILES AND THE INDIANS

His Purpose in Taking a Number to Fort Sheridan—The Cherokee Outlet Convention Receives a Telegram.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 28.—The inter-state commerce commission to-day decided the case of the New York Board of Trade and Transportation company vs. the Pennsylvania Railroad company and twenty-eight other railroad companies involving the question of discriminations made and preference given to foreign merchandise shipped upon through bills of lading from foreign ports to points of destination in the United States or ports en route in foreign countries adjacent to the United States over other and similar merchandise carried from such ports of destination in the United States. The complaint was sustained by the decision against the Texas and Pacific, Iron Mountain, Louisville, New Orleans & Texas, Illinois Central, Washburn & Superior, Union Pacific, Baltimore & Ohio, Lehigh Valley road, Canadian Pacific, and the Grand Trunk of Canada and each of them is ordered to forbear to discriminate and to desist from such practices. The order takes effect in March. The complaint was not sustained as to the other defendant railroad companies.

Miles on the Indian Situation.
CHICAGO, Jan. 28.—When asked this morning as to the final disposition to be made of the Indians at Fort Sheridan, General Miles said: "That is a matter to be determined in the future. Now that sitting Bull and other chiefs are killed and I have most of the other Indians left without leaders, there is no danger of further outbreak on the reservations. Those men I brought to Chicago are a crowd of outlaws. Three hundred Indians are now under the control of the military authorities and back on their reservations or on their way there. I could not tell what movement might be made in the spring and brought the ones now at Fort Sheridan as a precaution. The chiefs who went through to Washington are not so dangerous. The Indians who are here are not so dangerous. The reason that it would be a mistake to release them is that they are not so dangerous. With the hostile tribes only a few weeks more, they will be on an entirely different footing."

General Miles has detailed the following officers to each command of the company of Indian scouts to be enlisted at Pine Ridge: Lieutenant Willis O. Clark, Twelfth infantry; Lieutenant Gregory H. McDonald, First cavalry; and Lieutenant Joseph C. Byron, Eighth cavalry.

The Cherokee Outlet Convention.
WASHINGTON, Jan. 28.—The chairman, at the suggestion of the House committee on territories, to-day sent the following telegram to the chairman of the convention that meets to-morrow at Arkansas City, Kan., in the interest of opening up the territory to settlement.

"I am sorry to hear that the convention is so strongly disapproved. It is more than any to enter the Cherokee outlet country to law and the proclamation. The committee on territories will insist that any law passed shall have a right to enter the outlet country."

Webster County Probate Judge.
WASHINGTON, Jan. 28.—The President to-day sent the nomination to the Senate of A. C. Bishop to be probate judge of Webster county, Utah.

The Australian Ballot in Oregon.
SALISBURY, Oreg., Jan. 28.—The Australian ballot bill, which passed the house yesterday, was adopted in the senate to-day.

The Connors Strziny Fund.
[Special to THE HERALD—Examiner Dispatch.]
NEW YORK, Jan. 28.—The Connors Strziny fund has been found. She is living in a respectable home on the east side and she says she does not intend to return to her father's home.

Bradlaugh and the Commons.
LONDON, Jan. 28.—In the commons yesterday Sir William Glynne Hunter moved that the resolution of the house in June, 1888, forbidding Charles Bradlaugh to record oath or affirm, be expunged from the record as subversive of the rights of electors.

Gladstone supported the motion, but suggested omitting the words "subversive of the rights of electors."

The motion as amended passed.

The News declares Smith's acceptance of the Bradlaugh motion in the commons list to be due to the disclosure that a casual would result in the defeat of the government.

The News ignores the Chester Courant's statement about Gladstone resigning the Liberal leadership.

An Atchison Bank Goes into Liquidation.
ATCHISON, Kan., Jan. 28.—The State National bank of this city, closed its doors this morning and will go into voluntary liquidation. The bank has a capital stock of $250,000.

Election of Senators by Popular Vote.
LINCOLN, Neb., Jan. 28.—In the senate to-day a resolution was adopted favoring the election of United States Senators by popular vote.

A resolution congratulating Kansas on the defeat of Ingalls was lost.

Movements of the Storm.
WASHINGTON, Jan. 28.—The storm which was central in western Colorado yesterday morning has moved eastward and is now apparently central over the western portion of Indian territory. General rains prevail from the Gulf coast northward to the Ohio, upper Mississippi and Missouri valleys. Shows are reported from Nebraska, South Dakota and Rocky mountain states.

A Petrified Corpse.
[Special to THE HERALD—Examiner Dispatch.]
BROOKLYN, N. Y., Jan. 28.—The officials of Cypress Hill were told Monday that the body of a man had been brought there which had been examined before burial. It appears that Andrew Beck, a former resident of Brooklyn, had died in Kenilworth, Pike county, Penna., in 1884, and was buried there. The children of the deceased determined to have their parent's body reinterred in the family vault here, and permission was obtained from the Kenilworth authorities for the transfer. When the casket containing the remains reached here Monday, the heavy weight caused comments by the men who were carrying it, and Frederick Beck, one of the dead man's sons, had the casket opened. To the great astonishment of all concerned instead of finding a frame of bones they were confronted with the face of the dead man as full as when in life. The skin looked like parchment and was thickly

THE SILVER POOL

General Boynton Tells What He Knows about it.

MR. DOCKERY'S EXPLANATION

Why He Wanted the Investigation Postponed—The Silver Bill in the House Ways and Means Committee.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 28.—General Boynton testified in the silver pool investigation to-day. He testified he sent the message to Dingley, of the New York Times, on which his dispatch was based, stating Dingley and Payne, members of the committee, had said they would have gone into the investigation if they had supposed such a revelation regarding Senator Cameron would be made. The gentleman who informed him (Boynton) had been in the room and heard the conversation between Dingley and Payne. Each was explaining, apparently, that he had no knowledge or expectation that such testimony would be brought out, expressing surprise at the testimony and practically apologizing to each other that it had come out in the investigation.

Dingley said it was entirely possible he might have said he regretted exceedingly that any Congressman should have done any act which made it necessary that such facts should be brought out, but that it was very different from the statement that the committee would have kept the testimony out or purposely delayed it. This was totally untrue.

General Boynton said the day before the investigation Stevens, the correspondent of the Globe Democrat, received a message that it was the desire of the committee that he should call on the chairman of the committee, which was then in the city, and that he should bring with him a copy of the investigation report. He went to the committee and saw the chairman, who was then in the city, and that he should bring with him a copy of the investigation report.

General Boynton said the day before the investigation Stevens, the correspondent of the Globe Democrat, received a message that it was the desire of the committee that he should call on the chairman of the committee, which was then in the city, and that he should bring with him a copy of the investigation report.

General Boynton said the day before the investigation Stevens, the correspondent of the Globe Democrat, received a message that it was the desire of the committee that he should call on the chairman of the committee, which was then in the city, and that he should bring with him a copy of the investigation report.

General Boynton said the day before the investigation Stevens, the correspondent of the Globe Democrat, received a message that it was the desire of the committee that he should call on the chairman of the committee, which was then in the city, and that he should bring with him a copy of the investigation report.

General Boynton said the day before the investigation Stevens, the correspondent of the Globe Democrat, received a message that it was the desire of the committee that he should call on the chairman of the committee, which was then in the city, and that he should bring with him a copy of the investigation report.

General Boynton said the day before the investigation Stevens, the correspondent of the Globe Democrat, received a message that it was the desire of the committee that he should call on the chairman of the committee, which was then in the city, and that he should bring with him a copy of the investigation report.

General Boynton said the day before the investigation Stevens, the correspondent of the Globe Democrat, received a message that it was the desire of the committee that he should call on the chairman of the committee, which was then in the city, and that he should bring with him a copy of the investigation report.

General Boynton said the day before the investigation Stevens, the correspondent of the Globe Democrat, received a message that it was the desire of the committee that he should call on the chairman of the committee, which was then in the city, and that he should bring with him a copy of the investigation report.

General Boynton said the day before the investigation Stevens, the correspondent of the Globe Democrat, received a message that it was the desire of the committee that he should call on the chairman of the committee, which was then in the city, and that he should bring with him a copy of the investigation report.

General Boynton said the day before the investigation Stevens, the correspondent of the Globe Democrat, received a message that it was the desire of the committee that he should call on the chairman of the committee, which was then in the city, and that he should bring with him a copy of the investigation report.

General Boynton said the day before the investigation Stevens, the correspondent of the Globe Democrat, received a message that it was the desire of the committee that he should call on the chairman of the committee, which was then in the city, and that he should bring with him a copy of the investigation report.

General Boynton said the day before the investigation Stevens, the correspondent of the Globe Democrat, received a message that it was the desire of the committee that he should call on the chairman of the committee, which was then in the city, and that he should bring with him a copy of the investigation report.

General Boynton said the day before the investigation Stevens, the correspondent of the Globe Democrat, received a message that it was the desire of the committee that he should call on the chairman of the committee, which was then in the city, and that he should bring with him a copy of the investigation report.

General Boynton said the day before the investigation Stevens, the correspondent of the Globe Democrat, received a message that it was the desire of the committee that he should call on the chairman of the committee, which was then in the city, and that he should bring with him a copy of the investigation report.

General Boynton said the day before the investigation Stevens, the correspondent of the Globe Democrat, received a message that it was the desire of the committee that he should call on the chairman of the committee, which was then in the city, and that he should bring with him a copy of the investigation report.

General Boynton said the day before the investigation Stevens, the correspondent of the Globe Democrat, received a message that it was the desire of the committee that he should call on the chairman of the committee, which was then in the city, and that he should bring with him a copy of the investigation report.

General Boynton said the day before the investigation Stevens, the correspondent of the Globe Democrat, received a message that it was the desire of the committee that he should call on the chairman of the committee, which was then in the city, and that he should bring with him a copy of the investigation report.

General Boynton said the day before the investigation Stevens, the correspondent of the Globe Democrat, received a message that it was the desire of the committee that he should call on the chairman of the committee, which was then in the city, and that he should bring with him a copy of the investigation report.

General Boynton said the day before the investigation Stevens, the correspondent of the Globe Democrat, received a message that it was the desire of the committee that he should call on the chairman of the committee, which was then in the city, and that he should bring with him a copy of the investigation report.

General Boynton said the day before the investigation Stevens, the correspondent of the Globe Democrat, received a message that it was the desire of the committee that he should call on the chairman of the committee, which was then in the city, and that he should bring with him a copy of the investigation report.

General Boynton said the day before the investigation Stevens, the correspondent of the Globe Democrat, received a message that it was the desire of the committee that he should call on the chairman of the committee, which was then in the city, and that he should bring with him a copy of the investigation report.

General Boynton said the day before the investigation Stevens, the correspondent of the Globe Democrat, received a message that it was the desire of the committee that he should call on the chairman of the committee, which was then in the city, and that he should bring with him a copy of the investigation report.

General Boynton said the day before the investigation Stevens, the correspondent of the Globe Democrat, received a message that it was the desire of the committee that he should call on the chairman of the committee, which was then in the city, and that he should bring with him a copy of the investigation report.

General Boynton said the day before the investigation Stevens, the correspondent of the Globe Democrat, received a message that it was the desire of the committee that he should call on the chairman of the committee, which was then in the city, and that he should bring with him a copy of the investigation report.

TOO IMPRACTICABLE

Policy of the Farmers' National Alliance.

A CALL FOR A CONVENTION

In 1892 to Nominate a Presidential Candidate—Government Loans on Land-Railroads for the People.

OMAHA, Jan. 28.—The National Farmers' alliance had a lively discussion at to-day's session on an amendment to the constitution to exclude women from acting as delegates, and it was finally voted down. An amendment making all laboring men eligible to membership was tabled by a large vote. The remainder of the morning was occupied in discussing minor changes and a recess was taken until 3 o'clock this afternoon.

In the afternoon the report of the committee on resolutions, which was quite lengthy, was considered by paragraphs and adopted. It begins with the following preamble:

"Whereas, Owing to the oppression that has been heaped upon us by grasping monopolists, capitalists, trusts, and companies, we believe it is time for action; and, in consequence, the National Farmers' alliance, in conference assembled, does more emphatically declare against the present system of government as manipulated by the Congress of the United States and the legislatures of the several States."

"Therefore, we declare of holding a convention on February 23, 1892, to fix a date and place for the holding of a convention to nominate a candidate for the offices of President and Vice-President of the United States."

In this preliminary convention representation shall be by one delegate from each state in the union.

The resolutions favor the abolition of all national banks, and that surplus funds be loaned to individuals upon land security at a low rate of interest. It also demands a low rate of interest on the foreclosure of the mortgages held by the government on railroads, and discontinuance gambling in stocks and shares, and favors the election of the President and Vice-President by popular vote.

As the farmers of the United States largely outnumber any other class of citizens, they are entitled to a voice in the government, and for the good of the government, the Alliance members shall take part as patriots in the political struggle as afflicting with Republicans or Democrats.

The inter-state commerce law should be so amended and enforced as to allow the railroads to endow the money invested. The resolutions further demand that the mortgages on the Union and Central Pacific roads be foreclosed at once and the roads be taken over by the government and run in the interest of the people with a view to extending both lines to the eastern seaboard.

The free and equal exchange of silver is favored and that the volume of currency be increased to $50 per capita. A demand is made that all paper money be placed on an equality with gold.

Another resolution declares that "we land owners pledge ourselves to demand that the government allow us to borrow money from the United States at the same rate of interest as do the banks, and that the bonds and shares of stock should be assessed at their face value."

United States senators should be elected by popular vote.

The laws regarding the liquor traffic should be so amended as not to be a precedent for endangering the morals of our children and destroying the usefulness of our citizens.

We believe women have the same rights as their husbands to hold property, and we are in sympathy with any law that will give our wives, sisters and daughters full representation at the polls. Our children should be educated for honest labor, and agricultural colleges should be established in every state."

Liberal pensions are favored, also the passage of the Connor law bill. Resolved: That the conference representatives to the National Benefit association represent themselves to be elected by the conference.

Powderly's Third Party Circular.
NEW YORK, Jan. 28.—At a meeting of the executive council of the American Federation of Labor yesterday, the circular issued by Powderly requesting all labor organizations to send delegates to a conference to organize a third party was unanimously approved. The circular was signed by the Farmers' alliance was brought up, and it was decided to pay no attention to it. It was thought unwise for a labor organization to negotiate with the Farmers' alliance.

The miners' demand for eight hours, which takes place May next, was taken up. It was resolved to levy an assessment of 3 cents a week per capita for five weeks on the members of all unions connected with the federation. It is said there are favorable prospects that the demand for eight hours will be granted without any strikes, as employers and employees are holding conferences all the time with good results.

The committee which recently went to the convention of the Bricklayers' National union to join the federation, reported the bricklayers had decided to refer the matter to individual unions. The chances are, they reported, they would join after awhile.

Reciprocity with Canada.
OTTAWA, Ont., Jan. 28.—Sir Charles Tupper has been summoned to Ottawa from London to take part in the negotiations for a reciprocal commercial treaty, at Washington. Sir Charles, who sailed for Liverpool for New York to-morrow, will bear dispatches from Lord Salisbury regarding the reopening of the question of reciprocity, which he will submit to Secretary Blaine.

In view of the approaching election and the fact that the new session of the Canadian parliament will be the question of closer commercial relations with the United States, it is imperative that Sir John Macdonald should have some definite proposal to go to the country with, and Sir Charles is called upon to see what he can do at Washington in regard to the matter.

Oberlin's New President.
CLEVELAND, Jan. 28.—William Gay Halantyne, professor of Greek at Oberlin college was elected president of the college this morning, succeeding Charles S. Fairchild.

Smuggled Chinamen Arrested.
BUFFALO, Jan. 28.—Six Chinamen and two whitemen were arrested in this city last night charged with violation of the Chinese exclusion act. One of the white men, James M. Miller, is believed to manage the Canadian end of the underground railroad that has been running Chinamen into the United States by wholesale of late.

Moody Keeps Losing Votes.
PITTSBURGH, S. D., Jan. 28.—One ballot was taken for United States Senator to-day with no material change, excepting the loss of five votes by Moody.

Wanted to Lynch a Wife Murderer.
NEW ORLEANS, Jan. 28.—The Picayune's Austin, Tex., special says: It developed yesterday at San Marco that a lynching party of determined men had made up their minds to lynch Colonel George Snyder, the wife murderer, last night. The sheriff spirited the prisoner away and placed him in jail here.

THE DREAD DISEASE

Diphtheria has Again Appeared in Ephraim.

The Western Giving Good Satisfaction—The State Academy—Business Outlook—General and Personal News.

Diphtheria has again made its appearance in Ephraim, this time in the household of Jens Madsen. The case, however, is a mild one, and the best of precautions are being taken.

The Weber Comedy company has been here.

We rejoice in the possession of the railway facilities now enjoyed. The Westerns are giving good satisfaction. Freight leaving Salt Lake in the afternoon of one day arrives here the next evening at 10:15. This we consider good service for a new road.

Ephraim has done more to encourage the building of a railway through Sanpete than any other town in the country, so she has a right to feel proud of her success. Our active leaders have been very generous and accommodating, which is more than can be said for others in the same business.

The stake academy is not so well attended as it has been.

Several marriages have taken place lately in fact there is a regular matrimonial fever.

J. H. Otterson has been on the sick list, but is now improving slowly.

Business in Ephraim has been rather dull lately. Peterson & Hanson assigned lately.

J. C. Peterson has gone to Denning, N. M., where he will in the future reside.

Ephraim, Jan. 28. S. P. V.

Knew What He Wanted.
"Here's a man at the telephone who wants a new arm and horse and sleigh," said the new clerk in the lively stable to his employer. "I'm sure that is what he said, but I don't know what he means."

"Oh, that's all right," explained the livelier man. "You see, he wants a horse to drive with one hand. Send him old Dobbin up there in the corner."—Philadelphia Record.

At the police court.

"Your name?"
"Hippolyte Langlume."

"Where were you born?"
"In Paris."

"Have you ever been convicted?"
The prisoner smiles politely: "You are interviewing me, then?"—Figaro.

Always the Same.
Robinson—I like an even tempered woman.

Brown—So do I.

Robinson—There's my wife, for instance.

Brown—And mine. The most even tempered woman in the world. She is always mad.—Exchange.

Enough for Two.
When it was found that thirteen were seated at a table where Abbe Liszt was a guest the general embarrassment was checked by Liszt remarking:

"Do not be alarmed at such a trifle. I can eat for two persons."—London Tid-Bits.

Her Taste Had Changed.
Jake Jimpon—What species of bird do you like best?

Cora Bellows—When I was a child I liked the canary best, but (blushing) since I grew up I—I prefer the popinjay.—New York Herald.

His Suggestion.
"Do you think this hat suits my hair, Edward?"

"It's all right, I suppose. Still, if it doesn't suit, what's the matter with getting another lot of hair?"—Fleegende Blätter.

THE SILVER POOL

General Boynton Tells What He Knows about it.

MR. DOCKERY'S EXPLANATION

Why He Wanted the Investigation Postponed—The Silver Bill in the House Ways and Means Committee.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 28.—General Boynton testified in the silver pool investigation to-day. He testified he sent the message to Dingley, of the New York Times, on which his dispatch was based, stating Dingley and Payne, members of the committee, had said they would have gone into the investigation if they had supposed such a revelation regarding Senator Cameron would be made. The gentleman who informed him (Boynton) had been in the room and heard the conversation between Dingley and Payne. Each was explaining, apparently, that he had no knowledge or expectation that such testimony would be brought out, expressing surprise at the testimony and practically apologizing to each other that it had come out in the investigation.

Dingley said it was entirely possible he might have said he regretted exceedingly that any Congressman should have done any act which made it necessary that such facts should be brought out, but that it was very different from the statement that the committee would have kept the testimony out or purposely delayed it. This was totally untrue.

General Boynton said the day before the investigation Stevens, the correspondent of the Globe Democrat, received a message that it was the desire of the committee that he should call on the chairman of the committee, which was then in the city, and that he should bring with him a copy of the investigation report.

General Boynton said the day before the investigation Stevens, the correspondent of the Globe Democrat, received a message that it was the desire of the committee that he should call on the chairman of the committee, which was then in the city, and that he should bring with him a copy of the investigation report.

General Boynton said the day before the investigation Stevens, the correspondent of the Globe Democrat, received a message that it was the desire of the committee that he should call on the chairman of the committee, which was then in the city, and that he should bring with him a copy of the investigation report.

General Boynton said the day before the investigation Stevens, the correspondent of the Globe Democrat, received a message that it was the desire of the committee that he should call on the chairman of the committee, which was then in the city, and that he should bring with him a copy of the investigation report.

General Boynton said the day before the investigation Stevens, the correspondent of the Globe Democrat, received a message that it was the desire of the committee that he should call on the chairman of the committee, which was then in the city, and that he should bring with him a copy of the investigation report.

General Boynton said the day before the investigation Stevens, the correspondent of the Globe Democrat, received a message that it was the desire of the committee that he should call on the chairman of the committee, which was then in the city, and that he should bring with him a copy of the investigation report.

General Boynton said the day before the investigation Stevens, the correspondent of the Globe Democrat, received a message that it was the desire of the committee that he should call on the chairman of the committee, which was then in the city, and that he should bring with him a copy of the investigation report.

General Boynton said the day before the investigation Stevens, the correspondent of the Globe Democrat, received a message that it was the desire of the committee that he should call on the chairman of the committee, which was then in the city, and that he should bring with him a copy of the investigation report.

General Boynton said the day before the investigation Stevens, the correspondent of the Globe Democrat, received a message that it was the desire of the committee